

William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar Performance Adaptation Project

Project Responsibility Form

Names of each group member:

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 4. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 5. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 6. _____ |

Each group member must participate in writing the script and developing the ideas for the required elements. Individual group members will be responsible for completing tasks which help to finalize the project and the performance. All group members must be assigned a task. Tasks should be assigned evenly.

Your group must assign the following tasks:

Group leader—one student who will keep the group on task and the project moving toward completion

Scribe #1—one student who will take notes during group discussions regarding the script

Scribe #2—one student who will take notes during group discussions regarding the effects

Typist—one or two students who will type the script (This task may be divided by scene.)

One or more group members must be responsible for the creation of visual aids, etc.:

will work on sets

will work on props

will work on music/sound effects

Note: Individual group members are responsible for creating/obtaining his/her own costumes.

